PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the people of the United States have responded generously to calls from the Red Cross and other agencies working for the relief of our Allies in war-torn countries; and

WHEREAS, it is vital that we look to the first line of home defense in the United States by providing suitable, warm clothing for the families of service men, for the aged and infirm, for school children and babies, in the same generous manner; and

WHEREAS, The Needlework Guild of America has for sixty years been supplying new garments for the needy through accredited institutions throughout the nation, and is known as "The charity which helps other charities":

NOW, THEREFORE, I, M. Q. Sharpe, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Governor of the State of South Dakota, hereby proclaim the week of October 7-13, 1945 to the end that the needy of the State shall receive adequate and suitable clothing for protection through the winter; and suggest in furthering this splendid work.

SOUTH DAKOTA NEEDLEWORK GUILD WEEK

(Great Seal)

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great
Seal of the state of South
Dakota to be affixed, this 24th day of September, 1945.

M. Q. Sharpe
Governor
